رَقِيقٌ سَيِّدٌ بَرٌّ ذُو قُوَّةٍ وَفِي ذِكْرِ أَبِيهِ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَنِيًّا ذِي فَضْلٍ. وَكَانَ أَبُوهُمَا صَالِحًا فَأَرَادَ اللَّهُ لَهُمَا هَذِهِ الدَّيْلَةَ لَكُمْ فِي هَذَا رَقِيقًا وَأَن تَكُونُوا تَعْلَمُونَ. وَأَن تَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَدْعُو إِلَى سُبُوحٍ قُدُّوسٍ مُّتَّبِعِينَ أَتَمِّمُوا لَهُمْ مَقَدَرَهُمُ مِنَ الثَّمَنِ بِغَيْرِ أَفْسَاسٍ. أَتَمِّمُوا لَهُمْ مَقَدَرَهُمُ مِنَ الثَّمَنِ بِغَيْرِ أَفْسَاسٍ. أَتَمِّمُوا لَهُمْ مَقَدَرَهُمُ مِنَ الثَّمَنِ بِغَيْرِ أَفْسَاسٍ.

resourcefulness of such a tour to understand how to regulate and monitor the broadcast sector of Maldives.

OBSERVATIONS

- The State Administration of Press, Publication, Radio, Film and Television of the People's Republic of China (SAPPRFT), formerly known as the State Administration of Radio, Film, and Television (SARFT), is an executive branch under the State Council of the People's Republic of China.
- Its main task is the administration and supervision of state-owned enterprises engaged in the television, radio, and film industries.
- It directly controls state-owned enterprises at the national level such as China Central Television, China National Radio, China Radio International, as well as other movie and television studios and other non-business organizations.
- It is also responsible for censoring any materials that offend the sensibilities of the Chinese government or Chinese cultural standards.
- Vice Minister Tian Jin said that over the years government of China have contributed and cooperated in various aspects in development efforts of Maldives.
- Vice Minister Tian Jin assured that SAPPRFT would provide assistance to develop the broadcast sector of Maldives and especially to train local broadcasters.
- He further assured that every year they would invite a Maldives news editor/technical staff to the SAPPRFT organized annual media forum.
- Also, for further development of broadcasting sector, Vice Minister instructed the delegation to send in related proposals to the Chinese Ministry of Commerce.
- He further said that both Ministry of Commerce and Chinese Embassy in Maldives would work together in facilitating the trainings proposed.
- Vice Minister highlighted on a Chinese short movie shot in the Maldives, which helped in the promotion of Maldives tourism in China.
- He queried from the delegation on the possibilities of airing Chinese movies and series in the Maldives.
- Commission President said that the Commission fully supports such a venture and assured that they would play a mediator's role in building relations between Chinese cinema and Maldives broadcasters.
- The Commission's mandate and its role in the broadcast industry were highlighted in the discussions and the purpose of this study tour and its importance for the overall development of the broadcast industry of the Maldives was also highlighted. The challenges the Commission faces in functioning properly due to budgetary restraints and lack of modern technical equipment and resources was informed.
- Commission delegation inquired from Vice Minister on training opportunities for local broadcasters in areas of technical and human resource development.

RECOMMENDATION

- Maintain close contact with SAPPRFT in following up with the agreed areas of assistance.

- Request assistance in training local broadcasters to develop the country's broadcast sector.
- Maintain close contact with Ministry of Commerce (China) and Chinese Embassy in Maldives to submit proposals regarding broadcasting sector development and broadcaster training.

EVENT 2: VISIT TO CHINA RADIO INTERNATIONAL

8 November 2016, Tuesday, 15.30 HRS

Upon arrival at China Radio International, Commission delegation was greeted by CRI officials and provided an informative tour of the facility. Delegation met with staff at the facility and observed the broadcasting work in progress at various studios.

OBSERVATIONS

- China Radio International (CRI) is the state-owned international radio broadcaster of China. It was founded on December 3, 1941.
- CRI also publishes online dailies called Beijing News and Beijing International.
- It has 32 overseas correspondent bureaus and 6 main regional bureaus, and broadcasts over 2700 hours of programming each day (24 hours in English), including news, current affairs, and features on politics, the economy, culture, science and technology.
- CRI broadcasts in 65 languages.
- CRI content is broadcasted via the internet and numerous satellites; and its programs are rebroadcasted by many local FM and AM radio stations worldwide.
- Commission delegation highlighted the importance of professional training for technical staff in order to develop the sector, and they expressed their desire to send local broadcasters to work with CRI technical staff and experts on observer training and in attachment programs.
- The working stations are well equipped to fully function and staff has access to state-of-the art equipment for editing and production purposes.
- The delegation met with many of the staff working at CRI South Asia divisions such as Hindi, Tamil, Bengali, Nepali, Urdu, Sinhalese etc.

RECOMMENDATION

- Request assistance in training local broadcasters to develop the country's broadcast sector.
- Facilitate local broadcasters to work with CRI technical staff and experts on observer training and in attachment programs.
- Recommend opening a Dhivehi division at CRI to broadcast a variety of content in Dhivehi language.

DAY 3

EVENT: VISIT TO FORBIDDEN CITY AND THE GREAT WALL OF CHINA

9 November 2016, Wednesday

Commission delegation first visited one of China's most famous attractions, namely, the Forbidden City, in the morning. After that delegation made a trip to see the Great Wall of China, one of the most famous wonders of the world.

DAY 4

EVENT 1: VISIT TO CHINA LOCAL CONTENT MONITORING CENTRE

10 November 2016, Thursday, 9.30 HRS

Upon arrival at the Monitoring Centre, senior officials at the Centre greeted the Commission delegation. The delegation was briefed on the Monitoring Centre's functions and operating policies, during the visit.

OBSERVATIONS

- The Centre works under and is directly supervised by State Administration of Press, Publication, Radio, Film and Television of the People's Republic of China (SAPPRFT).
- The Monitoring Centre focuses on monitoring local content broadcasted via over 30,508 channels.
- The facility houses 150 screens, mounted on a 5mX50m display area.
- All the channels are simultaneously monitored throughout the day.
- 202 satellites provide the footage necessary for monitoring purposes.
- Over 4000 FM Radio frequencies are monitored at the facility.
- Complaints could be filed at the Centre throughout the day and 45 monitoring stations work in shifts and are in operation 24 hours a day.

RECOMMENDATION

- Request assistance in training Commission staff to develop the in-house monitoring department.

EVENT 2: VISIT TO CCTV+

10 November 2016, Thursday, 11.00 HRS

Upon arrival at CCTV+, senior officials at the facility greeted the Commission delegation. The delegation was briefed on the facility's functions and operating policies. The delegation also observed the ongoing broadcasting and related works at the facility.

Following the introduction of both parties, president of Broadcasting Commission, Mr Mohamed Shahyb, spoke on the Commission's mandate and its role in the broadcast industry of Maldives. Mr Shahyb also highlighted the purpose of this study tour and the resourcefulness of such a tour to understand how to regulate and monitor the broadcast sector of Maldives. Further he spoke of possible training in Chinese broadcasting facilities for local broadcasters in order to develop broadcasting sector of Maldives.

A detailed presentation of CCTV+ was made during the meeting held with CCTV+ senior officials.

OBSERVATIONS

- A subsidiary of China Central Television (CCTV), CCTV+ was established in December, 2010 in order to provide a wide variety of news materials from China and the world including political, economic, social and breaking news.
- In order to better serve customers from around the world, CCTV+ also provides scripts in English, French, Russian, Arabic and Spanish.
- Through cooperation with the Associated Press and Reuters, users of CCTV+ cover 1,600 television channels in more than 70 countries and districts.
- Through its online based Global Distribution System (GDS), CCTV+ provides a variety of news and video footage from China and Chinese perspectives on international affairs.
- CCTV+ informed the delegation that they are working together and have close affiliations with Maldives public service provider, Public Service Media (PSM).
- As the delegation were seeking training opportunities for local broadcasters, CCTV+ explained the training and models of training they conduct throughout the year, requesting Maldives broadcasters to join 20 days or 1 month training programs at the facility.
- Further CCTV+, requested from Commission delegation to facilitate in building relations with Maldives broadcasters with regard to create an understanding on sharing video footage on GDS of CCTV+.
- CCTV+ offered invitation to their annual Global Video Media Forum, where established media organizations and media personnel converge to share experiences, ideas and innovations to face the ever changing media spectrum.

RECOMMENDATION

- Request assistance in training local broadcasters to develop the country's broadcast sector.
- Facilitate local broadcasters to work with CCTV+ technical staff and experts on observer training and in attachment programs.
- Mediate between CCTV+ and local broadcasters in facilitating easy access to Global Distribution System (GDS).

EVENT 3: MEETING WITH VICE PRESIDENT OF CCTV

10 November 2016, Thursday, 15.30 HRS

Before meeting with CCTV Vice President, the Commission delegation was taken around the CCTV facility with broadcasting services ongoing at the studios. The delegation met with technical staff and enquired on the ongoing work and on technical aspects of the equipment at the facility.

At the meeting, following the introduction of the delegation CCTV Vice President and senior officials, Commission president Mr Mohamed Shahyb, briefed on the inception of the Broadcasting Commission, its mandate and role of Broadcasting Commission in the broadcast industry of Maldives.

OBSERVATIONS

- China Central Television (CCTV) is the predominant state television broadcaster of China.
- CCTV has a network of 50 channels broadcasting different programs and is accessible to more than one billion viewers.
- Most of its programs are a mixture of news, documentary, social education, comedy, entertainment, and drama.
- CCTV operates 50 television channels, and provides programming in six different languages.
- Speaking at the meeting, CCTV Vice President Mr Jiang Wenbo, said that at present CCTV focuses on integrating new media with broadcasting and with a vision to create apps for mobile for easy access to CCTV broadcasting content.
- He further went on to say that CCTV would be delighted to provide assistance for the development of broadcasting sector of Maldives.
- Reiterating his desire to assist in broadcast development, CCTV VP advised to make a proposal and to submit it to SAPPRT and advised to write to Chinese Ministry of Commerce to assist in acquiring technical equipment required to enhance the functioning of the Commission.
- Commission delegation inquired from CCTV VP on training opportunities for local broadcasters in areas of technical and human resource development.
- Commission President also requested assistance from CCTV to facilitate local broadcasters to use satellites for up linking and down linking.
- During the meeting Commission President highlighted many of ongoing development projects in Maldives with Chinese aid and assistance which should have a wide coverage in the media.

RECOMMENDATION

- Request assistance in training local broadcasters to develop the country's broadcast sector.
- Facilitate local broadcasters to work with CCTV technical staff and experts on observer training and in attachment programs.
- ON CCTV recommendation, submit proposal to SAPPRFT on broadcast development and broadcaster training for local broadcasters.
- ON CCTV recommendation, to write to Chinese Ministry of Commerce to assist in acquiring technical equipment required to enhance the functioning of the Commission.
- Request to CCTV to open their bureau in Male' to make coverage of ongoing Chinese assisted development projects in Maldives.

Follow up

Below is a list of actions to be taken and follow ups to do in order to facilitate programs and training opportunities that the Commission managed to secure through productive meetings and discussions with Chinese broadcast regulatory authorities and broadcasters that will ensure the overall development of Maldives' broadcast industry and strengthen technical capacity of broadcasters.

- Submit proposals to Chinese Ministry of Commerce and SAPPRFT through Chinese Embassy in Maldives on broadcast development and broadcaster training for local broadcasters at CCTV, CCTV+ and CRI.
- Submit proposals to Chinese Ministry of Commerce through Chinese Embassy in Maldives, to assist in acquiring technical equipment required to enhance the functioning of the Commission.
- Request assistance from SAPPRFT in training Commission staff at China Local Content Monitoring Centre, to develop the Commission's in-house monitoring department.

This list will be followed up regularly to assess the progress on training opportunities mentioned above.

Note of Gratitude

This study tour was organized with a lot of hard work and input of well wishers and other notable figures.

First and foremost the Commission expresses its gratitude to the government of China and the Chinese Embassy in Maldives, for the official invitation extended to the Commission to make this tour, for organizing a tour of this magnitude and for being a wonderful host to the Commission delegation during the delegation's stay in Beijing.

The Commission commends the work by the Chinese Embassy in Maldives, in organizing and arranging this tour. The Commission gratefully acknowledges the support and assistance of Chinese Ambassador to the Maldives, H.E. Mr Wang Fukang and staff at the Embassy in facilitating and the excellent arrangements of this tour.

Also, the Commission applauds the input of Secretary General Mohamed Nasih, Director, Planning and Projects, Aishath Shaaheen, Strategic Communications Officer Aminath Nuha in making this tour a possibility.
